The Threatening War.

From the London Spectator, March 30.

A war with a power organized for battle as Germany now is with an army of at least three-quarters of a million, and an armed population behind her of forty millions, is an enterprise which no people not alarmed for its existence, or wounded in its honor, would be willing to undertake. Frenchmen must surrender all hope of their "national boundary," the frontier of the Rhine, all expectation of obtaining Belgium except with Prussian consent, all claim to decide alone on the future distribution of the Sultan's dominions. Those hopes and expectations and claims may all be unreasonable, or absurd, or selfish, but they are entertained by Frenchmen, were avowed by a man so moderate as De Tocqueville, are cherished by the rank and file of France as Americans cherish the hope of ruling America from the Isthmus to the Pole.—There are signs abroad that Frenchmen are beginning to hate Prussia as they once hated England, and their hatred is by no means devoid of fear. Strange as it seems to Englishmen, Frenchmen have never forgotten 1815; never quite rid themselves of the belief that an invasion from the North, a successful invasion, is not beyond the limits of possibility. They listen to rumors about the absorption of Holland, the annexation of German Switzerland, an offensive and defensive alliance between Berlin and St. Petersburg, and an agreement between Von Bismarck and Ricasoli, till they begin to feel as men felt when the First Bonaparte was on the throne, as if nothing were too horrible to be beyond their enemy's dreams. Accounts of plans drawn up by Baron Von Moltke for the invasion of France are greedily received, and photographs of M. Thiers, who denounces Germany as a danger, are demanded in such numbers that even Parisian photographers are overworked. They see, too, some substantial evidence for their fears—a government bill, for instance which sends every able-bodied Frenchman into the ranks, a studious abstinence of the Moniteur from any allusion to the treaties with the South. If Napoleon be not really alarmed, why does he venture to risk his popularity with the peasantry? If he is not indignant, why does he silence the Moniteur usually so careful to reprint all official news?

The higher the popular estimate of the Emperor's sagacity, the deeper will be the apprehensions of all who believe in him, till they feel at last as if they, Frenchmen, the race of all others proudest of its military fame, were refusing a challenge, are half inclined like the peasants of Turny, to propose a levee en masse to defend the soil. That is not a healthy condition of mind for a great military people ruled by a dynasty to which success is as the breath of life.—It will make war easy on the first occasion, and there are occasions in plenty. Without believing all the rumors which now load the air of every continental capital, it may, we think, be taken for granted that Napoleon and Bismarck are at this moment engaged in a diplomatic war for the possession of Luxemburg. The King of Holland, to whom the Duchy belongs, is willing, it is said, to sell his right, and the Dutch, who dread entanglements with Germany, are willing that it should be sold. The only difficulty in the way is Prussia, which garrisons the fortress, which regards it as an outwork of Germany, which dare not surrender one inch of strictly German soil, and which hopes, and from the necessity of its geographical position will always continue to hope, that Holland may one day be attracted within the German circle. To seat a united Germany upon the Atlantic is a dream no German will willingly resign, and the Prussian King, though of course officially most desirous of peace, may object very strenuously to surrender Luxemburg. Napoleon cannot bear to be always baffled; the American complication is over; the French are in the dangerous mood which the idea that their influence is waning always inspires; England is paralysed by internal discussions, and indisposed in any event to interfere with France; Germany is excited till it will bear no menace; the East is stirring and heaving with excitement; all things point to that greatest of earthly calamities—a general European war. We have still three months, for Napoleon must give the signal, and the Exhibition does not close till August; but if he lives, and "unforseen does not arrive," Germany will yet be welded into a harder unity by blows from the outside. Already the mere rumor of menace is doing Count von Bismarck's work, the Federal draft is passing as rapidly as if the North German Parliament were filled with soldiers, and, when it is proclaimed, the King of Prussia is Emperor of Germany, with a military dictatorship for three years. And we wonder that on all bourses there are uneasiness and hesitation.

Rules for Preserving Health.

I see there is a fellow who calls himself Dr. Hall, and who publishes a Journal of Health, in which he gives a good many ridiculous rules which he says will preserve the health. I havn't much confidence in this fellow, for he is a doctor, and it is naturally against his interests to publish rules that will keep people healthy. I believe he has designs on the community, and only wants to shatter and break up their constitutions. As for his rules I can beat them myself, if I try, and I herewith do so. If these are accurately followed they will do as much good as old man Hall's anything.

1st. Never hang yourself out of an open window when you go to bed at night. The attraction of gravitation is always powerful during the nocturnal hours, and it may draw you violently against the pavement, and tear your night shirt.

2d. Always avoid drafts—on yourself—unless they are endorsed by a man with lots of soap.

3d. In cold weather always wear thick, warm clothing about your body. If you haven't money enough to buy it, attend an inextinguishable conflagration in the vicinity of a first-class clothing shop.

4th. If you wear spectacles avoid going into any firemen's riots that may be transpiring.—The reason of this is, that in addition to having your feelings hurt you will very likely get more glass in your eyes than you had outside.

5th. If you are quite a small baby be careful that there are no pins in your clothes, and always take a drink of milk punch out of a bottle with a gum thing on the nozzle, before you get in your cradle.

6th. In eating raw oysters always peel the shells off before swallowing. The shells are indigestible and are apt to lay on the stomach.

7th. Never sleep more than nine in a bed, even at a country hotel where a Democratic Convention is being held. It is apt to produce nightmare if any of the party kick in their sleep.—This is especially the case when they go to bed with their boots on.

8th. Abstain entirely from aceholic drinks.—The best way to do this is not to drink any alcohol.

9th. Never travel on railroad trains. Many persons have died quite unexpectedly by this imprudence.

10th. Never jab butcher knives, steel forks and such things into your vitals; it is very unwholesome.

11th. Always come in when it rains, and if a rattlesnake bites you in the leg cut it off, unless you wear false calves or a wooden leg. In that case just untie it and take it off.

I don't say that fellows who follow these instructions will never die and let their friends enjoy a ride to the cemetery, but you won't get choked off in the bloom of your youth and beauty.

By the way, isn't it odd that as soon as death overtakes us, man undertakes us? It is. It is.

A Truism.

We lose the benefit of travel through the ease and speed of it. As the old Pennsylvania farmer said, when a man traveled by stage coach he picked up much information at the numerous stopping places, but now he might journey to the Mississippi, and come back as big a fool as he went. We take Europe in lightning flashes, and get about as distinct an idea of it as the Dutchman had, who at the Lake of Geneva, thinking of the Prisoner of Chillon, asked to see the post to which old Byron was chained, because he would not shoot the apple from the head of William Tell, who was imprisoned at St. Helena, where he was allowed to speak to no one but his man Friday.—T. Starr King.

Bierstadt is going to Europe to make illustrations for John Meredith Read's new life of Henry Hudson.

A Disbanded Volunteer.

Our venerable friend, like a jolly old patriot, as he is, exults over the Russo American treaty, and throws out some valuable suggestions as to the use to be made of the new territory. We ask for his highly original views on the subject the attention which their importance deserves.

Eddytures of the Sunday Merkury:

SAINT NICKALAS HOTTEL,
NEW YORK, April 18.

Allow me to congratulate the American egul throo your columns on the acksishin of four hundred and fifty thousand squar milds of Rushin territory. A thing of buty is a joy forever! The Scoutt has kivered itself with a haito of glory by consentin to buy out the Rushin interest in the Arktick Sirkel at the low figger of seven millyons of dolors. Ef the North Pole was for sale, I should reckamend its purchis for the nayshinal flagstaff, so that the star-spangled banner forever thought wave tharon, and spin around wunst cry twenty-four hours with the hub of the universe outil the axeltree gin out.—Permit me to propose to my feller-kentrymen three cheers for the Birdofreedom, witch now dips wun of his all-spashus wings in the Gulf Streem, and wift the uther fans the icebugs of the Frozen Ocheo, while the shadder of his tailfethers is gradjally steelen in the direckshin of the Halls of Montezoomers and Central America.

I considder the Rushin Persesshins, eggstandin as they do from thirty degrees below freezin plint to the eggstreem end of zero, a remarkable cheap lot. Brittanyn would hev jumpt at the chance, and is now shinkli her big cel-spear at the Zar for not given her the refusal of the bargin. Fust, thars the frozen mountins, the valley of witch is unknown. Then thars the Eskimoes—a walrus peeople, the sunwot given to blubberin. Likewise thars no end of sea lions and sea-unicorns, seviral sizes bigger'n the land anemals of the same specie that defends the Brittish Crown. White bars are also numerus, and form a pleasent fetor of the winterlandskip. Those festive birds, the booby and the noddy breed thar in winderful abundance, and will proove a varabul addishin to the nateral histry of the United States. The treaty will also give us enuy kwantity of seals, and as sun as the new territory is connected with New York by the Pacific Railroad, furs, fish, sea hoss teeth, and raindeers tungs will be perleck drugs in the Atlantic market.

Besides these onestimable advantages this new kentry opens the door to another continent.—Does enuy boddy spose that when we hev annext all the outlyen settlements of North America, includin the British collonies, our noble ambishin will be satisfied. The mean cuss that thinks so knows but little of the nayshinal karecter. It is our misshin, as wun of our paytriotic songs butifully eggspresses it, to "poise the airth and rool the sea." When the "hull unbounded continent is ours," naturally the next move will be to threw a suspenshin bridge acrost Beerings Straits and take in Asia. The Kamskatacy Injuns is sed to be well disposed turds us, and would, no dout, take sheers in the enterprize, notwithstanden the munny they have lost in the tellegraf in conseekwence of the suspenshin of that great legtrick undertakin.

But the imminent importance of the new rejin consest mainly in its aptitood for collonisin purposes. Its valley in this respeek seems to hev eskaped the notis of Mr. Seward, but it is nevertheless onecalculable. Every day it is becumming more sartain that the white and black races in the Southern States kennot live together in unity when the law has made 'em polytickle ekwals. Wot then could be more oppertoon and providenshal than the acksishin of four hundred and fifty thousand squar miles of elbow room at this junctur. Let us be magnanymus, and give the hull of it to our kullerd bretheren, and let 'em settle it and sit under thar own vines and figtrees with nun to make em afeard. The climit is bracin and fish as plenty as enuy kuilord pusson could desire. That thoutful Statesman, the late Abram Lincoln, had an idee at wun time of shippin our dark-complected feller citysins to Nicaruager, but Nicaruager, and be cussed to her! didn't see it in the proper light. Here, now, is a fine oppertoonity of carryin out his favorit noshin of seperatin the breeds. Let us deed the entire rejin to the niggroes. They hev fit and bled for the republick, and we are bound to show our gratitood for thar services in sum way or uther. Here's a chanst to do the hansum thing at a cheap figger. Wot seven millyons?—a mere beggartell. Thars plenty of rum for the race to spred atween latitood 54 40 and the North Pole—space enuff for ten States as big as New York and a slice over for a playground for the pickaninies. Darn the eggspense, let em hev it and form a New Afrikey, and hev a President, and a Constitooshin, and a Congress, and a Soopreem Court of thar own. Its troo, the summers air short and the winters cool, but theyre a rugged, shel-bedded commoonity, and I dessay they'll keep in enuy climit ekwil to Bristol's sarsprilla or Brandreth's pills.

Ef the blacks deklined the gift, we mought use the new kentry as a penal settelment. We shell want wun afore long ef villany continuees to prosper in the United States as it has dun sence the war. Thars skoundrels enuff running at large in the Atlantic States alone, to poppylate the entire terrortory, and we couldn't do better than send two thirds of Congress and seven-eights of the legislatoor of New York thar, to pioneer the way for the remainder. The pool swindlers of Wall street should form the next batch, and arter them we mought send the less flagrant raskets, setch as burglars, insendiaries, and highway robbers.

Respeckfully submittin these idees for the consideraskin of an enlitened and moral publick,

I remain
with true American feeling
Yours allus

The Game of Yewker.

This libbred game of kards is about 27 years old.

It was fust diskovered by the deck hands on a Lake Erie steam boat, and handed down by them to posterity in awl its juvenile buty.

It is generally played by 4 persons and owes much of its absorbness tew the fakt that you kan talk, and drink, and chaw, and cheat, while the game is advancin.

I have seen it played on the Hudson River Railroad, in the smoking cars, with more immaculate skill than anywhere else.

If you play there, you will often hold a hand that will astonish you, quite often 1 queens and a 10 spot, which will influme you to bet 7 or 8 dollars that it is a good hand tew play poker with; but you will be more astonished when you see the other fellow's hand, which invariably consists of 4 kings and a one spot.

Yewker is a mixtuto game and don't compare tew old sledge in majesty, enuy more than the game of pin dar to a square church raffle.

I never play Yewker.

I never would learn how out ov principle.

I was originally created cluse tew the Connektikut line in Nu England, where the game of 7 up, or old sledge wuz born and exists now in awl its pristine virginity.

I play old sledge, tew this day, in its natiff fierceness.

But I wont play enny game if I know my charakter, where a jack will take an ace, and a 10 spot wont count a game.

I wont play no such kind ov game, out ov respekt to old Connektikut, mi natiff state.—Josh Billings.

UNITED STATES SENATE PROCEEDINGS.

NEW YORK, April 19.

The Herald's Montreal special says: It is reported that three Reform members of the Government—Hon. Messrs. Blair, McDougal and Howland—are going to resign, in order that they may be free to follow the policy of the new Reform party in Canada West. This would break up the coalition. The fact that the confederation, for which a coalition was formed, has been carried gives an air of correctness to this report.

The Herald's City of Mexico correspondence, dated March 17th, says Juarez had given orders to his officers to grant Maximilian an escort and honorable treatment to any point on the coast which he shall select as a point of embarkation, provided he is captured.

Money was becoming scarce in the Imperial coffers and the Finance Minister had thrown up his portfolio in disgust.

Skirmishes took place every day at the gates of Mexico City.

The savage order of Miramon inflicting death upon all prisoners captured was countermanded by Maximilian.

The story of Escobedo's death is believed to have been concocted in the Capital.

The Austrian garrison was looking out for the earliest opportunity to leave the country.

The Herald's special says: The miners' strike at Dover, N. J., is at an end, most of the miners going to work again at the old rates.

The Herald's special says. The Mexican Legation at Washington has unofficial information that Maximilian was on his way to Mexico City, having been wounded in his arm at Querataro.

The Tribune's special says: Three men have been arrested on suspicion of having stolen the $175,000 from the Brooklyn Navy Yard a year or two since. It is stated that the three men have been doing business for some time past as brokers in Wall street under assumed names, and that one of them has served a short time in the penitentiary since the commission of the robbery.

The Herald's special says: The Executive session of the Senate to-day was largely devoted to the discussion of Mexican affairs and Mr. Raymond's nomination for the Austrian mission.

Reverdy Johnson's resolution favoring mediation in the event of Maximilian's capture, and also offering the services of the United States Government to adjust the existing difficulties between the friends and enemies of the Mexican Republic, was debated at great length, but without arriving at any definite conclusion.

Messrs. Sumner, Johnson and several other Senators spoke warmly in favor of mediation, but there were some gentlemen who opposed the idea of the Government offering its good offices in behalf of Maximilian. The principal objection urged against the resolution was that Maximilian deserved the worst fate that might befall him as a punishment for the cruelties sanctioned by him in the case of captured guerrillas.

It is not true, as stated in some papers, that Senator Johnson's resolution recommended annexation or even a protectorate over the Mexican Republic.

No steps have been taken towards the international convention between Spain, Chili and Peru, which was to have been held at this city.

It has transpired here that the summons to Messrs. Trenholm & Co. to appear before the Judiciary Impeachment Committee was based on the allegation that a million of dollars in gold had been paid to secure the pardon of blockade runners.

BALTIMORE, April 19.

The working men of this city organized a Workingmen's Political Union on the platform of the National Labor Congress held here last fall.

The suit against Maj. Gen. John E. Wool for false imprisonment during the war is progressing in the United States Court and attracts much public interest, as other cases are pending on the result.

WASHINGTON, April 19.

The monthly report of the Department of Agriculture says there are favorable indications of a good wheat crop.

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., April 19.

A fire occurred at Paris, Ill., last night, destroying three stores. Loss about $20,000—insured for $6,800.

BOSTON, April 19.

The House Committee on Railroads have unanimously reported a bill in favor of granting State credit for $3,000,000 to the Boston, Hartford & Erie Railroad.

Judge Lowell, of the United States District Court, has decided that the Clyde-built steamer Syren, captured on Ashley River, Charleston, when Charleston surrendered, and which was brought to this port and surrendered as a prize, was a prize to the Government and not to the blockading fleet, as it is claimed by the Government that her capture was as much the result of the army besieging as of the navy.

NEW YORK, April 19.

Dr. R. Sears, General Agent of the Peabody Educational Fund, has issued a circular giving a somewhat detailed statement of the mode in which the trustees of the fund propose to apply the noble charity committed to their charge. He says:

"The direct aim of the agent will be to encourage and aid common schools in the South, that is, schools established, supported and superintended by the Southern people themselves. Apart from this leading object, the founding and maintainance of schools will not come within his plan. Usually, appropriations in moderate amounts will be made when schools are languishing or liable to be suspended for want of means to support them. Similar aid, if necessary, will be supplied to schools whenever citizens shall introduce them and undertake their support; all such aid to be regarded temporary. In selecting schools to be aided or the places of be supplied with them, those will be preferred in which the destitution is greatest and the number to be benefited larger. Normal schools, or schools having normal departments, will receive particular attention. A small number of these, furnishing the most perfect models of instruction, will be considered as more important than a larger number of inferior character. Here, also, it is the purpose of the agent to aid others in their work and not to assume the support of such schools.

"Appropriations will be made only when the conditions stipulated between individual corporations and the General Agent have been strictly complied with. Funds will not be given to literary or professional schools as such. Applicants will make estimates of the least possible amount necessary to meet their wants and report the same at once to Mr. Sears, General Agent, or John E. Ames, General Traveling Agent, Atlanta, Georgia.

Special arrangements may sometimes be made with these gentlemen for the purpose of encouraging the industrial arts or the education of teachers. The agent will not identify his efforts with any other associations by placing funds at the disposal of its managers, but in any connection he may hold with benevolent or religious societies he will pursue his own special object by such means and appliances as he shall select.

At present there will be no agencies, except a few in which the services rendered will be gratuitous. The agent will not, except in a few exceptional cases, have occasion to employ teachers. He can, therefore, aid such places only by giving their names to school committees.

Good Friday was very generally observed in financial circles, the Stock and Gold Exchanges and Morning Board being closed. The Subtreasury and banks were open for business, as the day was not a legal holiday, but bankers' and brokers' offices were closed, except for payments of drafts and fulfilling of maturing contracts.

BUFFALO, April 19.

The schooner Republic, laden with lime for Toledo, was towed through the ice to clear water last evening—the first vessel from Buffalo this season.

A boat arrived from Detroit this afternoon.

NEW YORK, April 19.

The express car of last night's express train west, on the Erie Road, took fire near Chemung station from sparks from the engine and was totally destroyed. The contents were consigned to parties in the West, in care of the United States and Merchants' Union Expresses. Loss $30,000. The safes contained the money packages and were saved. The express messengers had a narrow escape.

Fourteen thousand bushels of corn were sent to Mobile to-day by the Southern Relief Association.

All the carpenters, except about a hundred, have returned to work at $4 a day. Those who are still striking are taking subscriptions to funds with which they intend starting in this city a co-operative carpenters' shop.

The Plasterers' Association will not ask an increase of wages, if the Governor signs the Eight Hour law.

The tailors have denounced those employers who will not yield the two hours, shorter time on Saturday which they demanded.

WASHINGTON, April 19.

The nomination of Mr. Raymond as Minister to Austria was laid on the table in the Senate this afternoon. The Senate refused to express an opinion whether the mission was vacant or not.

Sidney Howard Gay has been nominated for United States Assessor in the 19th District of New York.

CINCINNATI, April 19.

The fire at Pomeroy, Ohio, last night destroyed N. C. Williamson & Co.'s flour mill, Cook & Co.'s machine shop and seven dwellings. Loss $100,000—amount of insurance not stated.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 17.

Dr. Benjamin B. Coat, the pioneer physician of San Francisco, dropped dead in the street last night. Cause—heart disease.

LONDON April 19—Noon.

Dispatches received from Berlin state the speech of King William closing Parliament excites distrust throughout Germany.

United States Senate—Extra Session.

WASHINGTON, April 19.

Mr. Henderson tendered a resolution providing that there be printed for the use of the Senate 20,000 copies of the report of the Secretary of the Interior, giving information as to the number, location, &c., of the various tribes of Indians, and 5,000 for the War Department. Referred to the Printing Committee.

The Senate went into Executive Session.

The doors were opened and Mr. Anthony offered a resolution, which was adopted, for the appointment of a committee to wait on the President and inform him that unless he have some further communication to make, the Senate will adjourn to morrow at 4 o'clock. The Chair appointed Messrs. Fessenden and Johnson as such committee.

The Senate resumed its Executive session.

At a subsequent stage of the proceedings, Mr. Anthony, from the above named Committee, reported that they had performed the duty assigned and the President requested them to inform the Senate that he would to-day make some further Executive communications, but at present he knew no reason why the Senate should not adjourn at the time fixed.

The Senate took a recess from 5 until 7:30.

THE ONLY CORRECT AND CERTAIN WAY UPON WHICH TO DO A SUCCESSFUL AND LUCRATIVE BUSINESS.

THE KENO RIVALRY SYSTEM OF DOING THE

DRY GOODS AND READY-MADE CLOTHING

BUSINESS IS SOON ON ITS LAST LEGS—IT DIES HARD, BUT DIE IT MUST.

J. ULLMAN & BRO.

HAVE ALWAYS SAID THAT SUCH A PERNICIOUS JUMBLING SYSTEM MUST GIVE WAY TO PRUDENT AND HONEST DEALING, AND TO REDUCED EXPENSES.

No Store Rent, no High Expenses

Is the only system by which goods can be sold at a low profit. By complying with the above prudent management we are able to offer our immense stock of

NEW SPRING GOODS

FOR LESS MONEY THAN ANY OTHER STORE IN THIS CITY, OR ANYWHERE WEST OF NEW YORK.

Look at the list of prices for a few of our goods we offer to the public:

LAST APPEAL.

Call at our store and examine the stock, ask for the prices of goods, and we are confident you will say these goods are sacrificed. You will say these goods cannot be bought in New York for such prices. But we say they can and be sold as low as we do. Why can we sell cheap? Because we have no expenses and buy for Cash and sell only for Cash. Our Cash system will save us from losing bad accounts, and enable us not to tuck on to our goods extra per centage for bad accounts. Come one and all, and convince yourself of the facts.

N. B.—Country Merchants and Pedlars supplied at New York Jobbing prices.

Seven-eighths of our stock has been bought within two weeks at those low bankrupt prices, and have been bought for cash, which is the only way of buying cheap. Remember the

—We "hear" that Dr. Aborn is operating in Buffalo.

—The iron tankage at Oil City is estimated at one million barrels.

—Roswell Chapin, the oldest member of the bar, died a few days since.

—The New York State Fair (Agricultural) is to be held at Buffalo next fall.

—A new Methodist and a Presbyterian church are to be erected in Franklin.

—Oil under 45 gravity sold on Pioneer Run yesterday at $2.50 at the wells.

—There is to be a Medical Convention at Conneautville commencing next Tuesday and lasting two weeks, winding up with a concert.

—The largest raft of lumber ever seen in Oil Creek went down last week. It foots up 900,000 feet, and was from the mills of Ames & Co., near Titusville.

—The bath-room of Gaskill & Mathews, No. 5 Franklin street, is now in order and a most popular resort for all classes. The arrangements are everything that could be desired.

—It is said that Seward proposes to take British Columbia in part payment from the English Government on "Alabama Claims." Better take Canada and call the account square.

—The New York State Senate has refused to pass the Central Railroad Fare bill over the Governor's veto. The Central charges only half the price per mile which other roads do.

—The Downer House, at Corry, has been opened in a magnificent style, by "mine host" H. H. Lockwood, formerly of Hornellsville, N.Y., and bids fair to receive a very liberal patronage.

—The Jewish Passover commenced yesterday evening, and will continue one week. It is faithfully observed by all children of the Hebrew faith, by abstaining from leavened bread, and by religious services in their synagogue, which are held morning and evening.

—The family of our late esteemed fellow-citizen, Rensselaer Walrath, who met some weeks since such a melancholy fate by leaping from a railroad train near Oneida station, New York, returned to this city on Thursday. They will have the sympathies of the community in their great affliction.

—A pretty good illustration of the "law's delay" is furnished in the injunction case before the Supreme Court of the United States restraining Secretary Stanton and Gen. Grant from executing the Reconstruction law—the State of Georgia, being the petitioner. The case is put over till next December, by the Chief Justice.

—A new well has lately been struck on Lease No. 62, Patterson Farm, Bull Run, called the Gen. Barry well, and is pumping and flowing about fifty barrels of 42 gravity oil per day and bids fair to be one of the best wells on the Run. The working interest is owned by Lieuts. Long and Teller, of Bull Run, and Capt. R. H. Lee, of this city, all of whom served under Gen. Barry, in the artillery arm of the service.

—St. John's Church, (Episcopalian,) of Franklin, will be opened for the first time for public worship on Easter Day, Sunday next. There will be choral singing in the morning and evening service. On Friday of next week, the Bishop of the Diocese will celebrate the formal opening services of the church with appropriate services. Several eminent clergymen are expected to be present and participate in the ceremonies.

"What a Fall was There, My Countrymen!"

We publish a card from Mr. Sturtevant in another column. The politician's fame is ephemeral, unless he can keep himself constantly before the people, and make himself a subject of discussion. Newspapers are very serviceable in this way, and some men have such a love of notoriety that they rejoice even at an attack upon them, as it affords them a chance to see their names in print. We may say, however, for the information of many of our readers that Mr. S. was for a year or two a member of our State Legislature (the House), and lives somewhere in the Western part of this county. This year, he "came down a peg," and got a Clerkship, folding papers or something of that sort in the State Senate—a position whose duties are mechanical, we suppose, and which many a poor and crippled soldier could have filled, quite as well and been glad of it. Such places ought to be given, as everybody concedes, to "disabled" soldiers in preference. Senator Lowry himself seemed to think that one of that class had more "claims," than even an able-bodied, well-to-do, honorable ex-member. We are sure Mr. S. would not have had much trouble in finding some one-legged or one-armed soldier of "good record" in Crawford county who would have been glad to get such a place. But tastes differ, and it would appear that Mr. Sturtevant deemed it more patriotic to build the monument of a dead soldier than to assist a living one. The constituents of Mr. S., when they heard what their old member was doing at Harrisburg last winter, felt greatly indignant and mortified. It is no wonder that Mr. S. is sensitive about the remarks people indulge in on the subject. But his Card only makes matters worse, and will keep it fresher in the memory of the people. He tells the Senator the pathetic, self-sacrificing considerations that govern him in soliciting this place. "First," he says, "I have been unfortunate this summer, lost some money." One would argue from this that he hoped to repair his losses by spending the winter in Harrisburg, but certainly not from the salary, for he adds as a third reason, that he wants to build a monument, or, as Lowry expresses it, "give his whole winter's work for nothing," to promote that hallowed object. Well may the Senator exclaim with religious emotion, "Sir, your impulse is glorious, your resolution divine!" It is not often that we see in these degenerate times so sublime an instance of self-abnegation as this. Well may the Senator exclaim, "Sturtevant, God bless you!" Here is J. C. in bad luck, has met with losses, lost his candidate for Congress for one thing, has nothing particular to do at home, almost discouraged, and what does he but go and "work all winter for nothing." There is nothing like it in modern history, except Everett's giving the proceeds of his oration on Washington to buy Mount Vernon from rapacious heirs, after deducting necessary expenses. By the by, we notice this saving clause in the "very liberal" gentleman's donation. Some uncharitable persons might think they saw "a cat in the meal" in the desire expressed by the candidate for the clerkship to be in Harrisburg until the election of Senator. "Cameron's chances" obviously weigh upon his sympathetic heart. "Ah!" exclaims Lowry, "I want you for a thousand reasons at Harrisburg." We are pained to see Mr. S. close his correspondence by intimating that the Soldiers' Monument may not be erected after all.—"A winter's work" all gone for nothing! But even then he will not touch a cent of this sacred two hundred dollars. "I have had losses. I have little or nothing to do, but I care not for myself, only for my bleeding country, for suffering humanity. If you don't build a monument, give my salary to some "charitable object."—Generous soul!

The Next President.

If Johnson does not seek the Presidential nomination for 1868, he will be an exception to the general rule. Although the man in exalted office is a constant mark for detraction, has no repose either of body or mind, and is brought in contact with human nature in its most repulsive aspects, still it is not in human nature to willingly lay down the sceptre, or even the insignia of power, and to come down to the level of the herd of men. With the higher order of men, with men of moral elevation and a moral purpose—with a Washington or a Lincoln, office is a burden gladly resigned when they have fulfilled their mission, caring nothing for the plaudits of the world except as the echo of a conscious rectitude and a certificate of their well-doing. With one, however, who has reached the height of position by the tortuous and slimy path of a narrow, selfish ambition, power is valued not as the instrument of patriotic or philanthopic aims and purposes, but as a pedestal from which his figure may attract the admiring gaze of his own time and the future. And especially, if his policy of administration has met with popular resistance and rebuke, and if his personal character has been assailed with vituperation, he seeks solace for his mortified vanity and an endorsement of his official acts, in a re-election to office. To accomplish this, with any array of office holders at his back, he organizes or manipulates the political elements around him. We take it for granted, therefore, on the general principles we have laid down, that Johnson will spare no pains to be his own successor, however futile his efforts may seem to others.—We see no where any strong indications of who "the peoples' choice" is for the Presidency.—There are no lack of aspirants, in fact "their name is legion." Nearly every State has its favorite. Ohio alone has Chase, Wade and Grant. But the first question to be settled is whether the candidate shall be a soldier, a statesman or a jurist. He must, unquestionably, be a Radical to suit the dominant faction in the Republican ranks. Butler, having reached Congress, where he can command the ear of the country for his utterances and help shape legislation and make up the issues for the Presidential campaign, will be a formidable candidate. The vulgar abuse which is heaped upon him by the Democratic press shows that they fear his influence with the masses. Parton's life of Butler, though not written for political effect, but to present one of the most brilliant phases of our war, by grouping its incidents around one of its foremost heroes, has exerted a silent but powerful influence among the thinking men of the country. It showed Butler to be a great, brave man, of iron purpose, but devoted in his patriotism and surpassed by none in political foresight and in the wisdom, purity and firmness of his civil administration. In fact, the "record" of General Butler was a distinguished and brilliant one. The people like his nerve, his back-bone, and his nomination would excite more popular enthusiasm among those who served in the army than any other, saving that of Grant or Sherman.

Lying in State of Bishop Timon.

The Buffalo Courier of Thursday says:

Yesterday afternoon the process of embalming the body of the late Bishop Timon having been completed, under the supervision of Drs. White and Wetmore, the remains, clothed in his episcopal robes, consisting of cassock and rochet, amice, alb, cincture, sandals, dalmatica, stole, maniple, chasuble, gloves, Episcopal ring and mitre, were removed from his bed chamber to the southwest parlors of the Episcopal Residence, where they are now lying in state.

The walls of the parlors are completely covered with black alpaca, heavily festooned with white cambric and interspersed with white rosettes. The body is deposited in a magnificent metallic coffin with silver plated ornaments, surrounded by a silver plated railing to be used in handling the same, and from the sides and at the head and foot of which hang twelve tassels of silver bullion. There are two glass plates in the top, which expose the entire figure of the Bishop to the gaze of the visitors. On this narrow slip, is a silver plate, with the following inscription:

Rt. Rev. John Timon, D. D. O. M.
First Bishop of Buffalo,
Died April 18th, 1867.
Aged 72 years.
R. I. P.

The coffin is placed upon a catafalque in the centre of the room, immediately under a gas chandelier. Around the catafalque are placed six tall candelabrums, heavily draped in mourning, in which are placed as many blessed wax candles, that are kept lighted night and day. At the foot of the coffin are placed a font of holy water and a stand on which is placed a censer in which incense is constantly burning, and around which are placed four lighted wax candles. The countenance is perfectly natural, and looks as if the good Bishop was in a tranquil sleep, and on his breast is a crucifix of pure white marble. All the appointments to the remains and room are of the most imposing nature; and help to give a faint idea of the esteem in which the deceased was held, while living, by his immediate flock.—The body is in charge of the clergy and members of the various Catholic Societies of the city.

The rules of the Church not permitting a corpse to be brought into the sanctuary during Holy Week, the remains will be at the Episcopal residence until Monday, and visitors will be admitted from 8 o'clock a. m. to 8 o'clock p. m. each day. On Monday the coffin will be removed, accompanied by a procession and with imposing ceremonies, to the Cathedral, which will be appropriately dressed in mourning for the occasion, and lie in state there until Tuesday, the time of burial.

Archbishop McCloskey, of New York, it is expected, will be present to officiate at the funeral ceremonies, and the coffin will be lowered from the sanctuary, through the floor, to the final resting place in the vault; thus enabling all the ceremonies to be held inside the Cathedral.

Income Tax.

The total collections under this head for 1863-4-5-6 were as follows:

1863	$455,741.26
1864	14,933,362.32
1865	30,740,451.33
1866	31,071,982.25

The country is divided for collection purposes into 240 districts, but only from 185 have returns been published indicating the number of persons assessed for income tax in 1866. The districts from which there are no return are those remote from Washington. In 185 districts only 383,711 persons made an income return, and they paid a gross sum of $34,798,726.16. Of these 199,189 returns less than one thousand dollars.
162,513 returned more .. ..
31,809 returned more than five .. ..

Among the delegates expected there are Drs. Guthrie and Fairbain, of Scotland, and Drs. Denham and Hall, of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church of Ireland. Fire at Meredith—Destruction of the Alvord House.

About two o'clock yesterday morning a fire was discovered on the first floor in the immediate vicinity of the stair-case in the Alvord House at Meredith. The alarm was instantly given and the affrighted guests and employees attempted in vain to go down the stairs, and they escaped through the windows of the second story. Two of the guests, Walter Bragley and Charles Gyer, were seriously burned; the former about the face and legs and the latter about the head and face. They were taken yesterday morning to their places of residence in this city. The fire spread with such rapidity that it was found impossible to save anything. The Alvord House was a wooden structure two and one-half stories high. It was built in the fall of '65 at a cost of about $4,000, and was owned by Messrs. Alvord and O'Neil, of Syracuse. At the time of the fire it was occupied by Mr. G. R. Baker. The loss on the building, furniture, and the baggage of the guests and employees will not fall short of $6,000. The building was insured for $1,000 in the Ætna Insurance Company, and the furniture for $250 in the same company. The origin of the fire is unknown, but is supposed to have been the work of an incendiary.

A Card from J. C. Sturtevant.

The following card appears in the Conneautville Record and Courier:

SPRING, PA., April 15, 1867.

EDITORS RECORD AND COURIER: I very much dislike to appear in the newspapers, but the cause of truth demands that the following correspondence should be published. Senator Lowry wished me to publish it some time ago, but I preferred to wait until the expiration of my term of office.

"SPRING, Nov., 4, 1866.

"HON. M. B. LOWRY.—Dear Sir: During the campaign you expressed a desire that I might be in Harrisburg the coming session as an officer of the Senate. As Crawford county is entitled to the position at your disposal, and if there is no applicant for it, I would be glad of it for these reasons: First, I have been rather unfortunate this summer, lost some money; Second, My business is such that I can leave home nearly as well as not. Third, We are trying to raise money to build a Soldiers' Monument in our cemetery, so as to keep fresh the memory of those brave boys who died from Spring that their country might live. I think this is as little as we can do for them and their surviving friends. We find it very hard work to get money for this purpose, and I am satisfied that a few of us must be very liberal or the project fails. I propose to give a part of my salary to this object. If one is erected at Meadville for the county, I will give a portion of it to that, so between these two objects I shall dispose of nearly or quite all of my salary after deducting my expenses.

"Besides I have a desire to be in Harrisburg until the election of Senator and the inauguration of the Governor takes place. I heard in Meadville last week that Cameron's chances were thought better than Curtin's. Have you heard from the Capital lately?

"Hoping to hear from you soon, I am, very truly yours, J. C. STURTEVANT.

"P. S.—Give my regards to Mr. Sill, and tell him I will see about his Beaver lands in a few days. JOHN."

"ERIE, Nov. 15, 1866.

"MR. STURTEVANT—Dear Sir: I am in receipt of yours of yesterday. Crawford county is entitled to the appointment of the office at my disposal at Harrisburg; she was entitled to it last fall, but I gave it to a soldier born in Girard. You shall have the appointment unless a soldier with a good record and strong claims, residing in Crawford county, shall make application. None has yet done so. You say the whole net profits of your winter's work shall go to the construction of a soldiers monument in Crawford county. This is a glorious impulse and a divine resolution. No condition of this kind was necessary. I want you for a thousand reasons at Harrisburg, and the offer to work all winter for nothing I admire but have no right to demand or expect. God bless you. M. B. LOWRY."

"P. S.—I think all things are looking well at Harrisburg for Cameron. Both of the C.'s are confident, but Cameron will triumph, and Radicalism will triumph with him. I have just returned from there. M. B. L."

I find after paying my expenses at Harrisburg, and those made necessary by my absence from home, that I have four hundred dollars left from my salary, which in accordance with the above, I will give as follows: Two hundred dollars to a Soldiers' Monument to be erected in the Spring cemetery, the remaining two hundred to a County Soldiers' Monument to be erected in the city of Meadville. In case the latter is not erected then the sum mentioned shall be donated to some charitable object within the county.

J. C. STURTEVANT.

IMPORTANT TO DISABLED SOLDIERS.—An order has been issued by General Butterfield, in accordance with instructions from Washington, by which men who were disabled while in the service as soldiers, may be enlisted into the Veteran Reserve Corps provided they are suited for the duty required in that branch of the public service. The enlistments must be made at any of the United States recruiting stations. This will be good news to many deserving men who now find themselves disqualified for earning a livelihood at the trade or business to which they belong by reason of disability.

Duty of Township Auditors.

The following is the law in full relative to the duties of Township Auditors in auditing the taxes collected for bounty purposes:

Section 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That it shall be the duty of the commissioners, supervisors, borough and city councils, school directors, board of election officers, and all other persons and officials who, under the directions and authority of an act of General Assembly, relating to the payment of bounties to volunteers, approved the twenty-fifth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, and the several supplements thereto, proceed to raise money, by taxation or otherwise, as the agents, officials, or representatives, of any county, township, ward, city, or borough, for the payment of volunteers, to have their accounts regularly and legally audited, at the time of auditing other accounts, by the proper board of auditors of the county, township, ward, city or borough, for which such moneys were so raised and expended.

Sec. 2. That in case any of such accounts of moneys raised for the payment of bounties as aforesaid, shall not have been audited by the proper Board of Auditors, as provided in the first section, before the passage of this act, the said Auditors, or a majority of them, shall notify the delinquent parties, or officials, having authority to raise money for the payment of bounties to volunteers, to appear before them, at a time and place fixed by said Board of Auditors not less than fifteen nor more than thirty days from the date of such notice, for the purpose of auditing their account up to the close of the preceding fiscal year, thence annually thereafter, as provided in the first section; and upon failure of the Auditors to attend to their duty, or of the delinquent officials to meet and make a settlement with the Board of Auditors, as aforesaid, each person, so offending, by suit before a Justice of the Peace, or Alderman, as other debts of like amounts are collectable, one-half to be paid to the prosecutor, and one-half to be paid into the school fund of the county, township, ward, borough, or city, for which such delinquent has been acting.

Sec. 3. That it shall be the duty of the auditor, immediately after the settlement, as aforesaid, to prepare a condensed statement of the condition of these finances, and publish the same, at the cost of the district, for three successive weeks, in two newspapers having the largest circulation in the city or county.

Approved—the eleventh day of April, Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL

PETROLEUM MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE MORNING HERALD, TITUSVILLE, April 19, 1867.

The Petroleum market is firm with a slight adverse feeling and without change from yesterday's prices.—Several of the largest buyers for the New York, Cleveland and Pittsburgh markets are holding off. The producers are holding firm and do not seem inclined to make any concessions. The inquiry to-day was moderate. In the vicinity of Petroleum Centre offers were made of $2.50 for 47 gr. oil delivered on the cars. On the Stevenson Farm buyers were offering $2.25 for 48 gr. oil at the wells. On Bennehoff Run oil of 46 gr. is held at $2.30 at the wells. On the McClintock Farm oil of 47 gr. is held at $2.50 delivered on the cars. On Pioneer Run offers of $2.30 were made for 48 gr. oil at the wells. The sales reported to-day were as follows: 100 barrels on Bull Run, from the Lady Barringer well, for the New York market, 48 gr., at $2.10 at the wells; 300 barrels on Pioneer Run, from the Pierson's well, for the Buffalo market, under 45 gr., at $2.50 at the wells; 200 barrels on Bennehoff Run, by the Bennehoff Mutual Petroleum Company, for the Pittsburgh market, 47 gr. at $2.20 at the wells; 1,000 barrels on the Stevenson Farm, from G. K. Anderson's wells, for the Cleveland market, 48 gr., at $2.25 at the wells; 200 barrels on Bennehoff Run, by the Bennehoff Run Petroleum Company, for the New York market, 47 gr., at $2 at the wells; 100 barrels on Bull Run, from the Rock well, for the New York market, 46 gr., at $2.10 at the wells.

Snow's Patent Liquid Packing Pump for Oil Wells.

—This celebrated "Pump" having been most successfully and generally used in the oil regions of Pennsylvania, and bearing a fame unsurpassed for its durability and wear, and the general good results of its application, doing away with leather and all other flexible packing, thereby avoiding the perplexities of a leather packing valve, and having all the advantages of other pumps and valves in bailing and keeping up the production of oil, I take pleasure in announcing to the public that I am now prepared to furnish any demand for these Pumps at the shortest notice. Below I give a few of the numerous testimonials I have received in their favor, and also "by permission," refer for information as to their durability, and general good results to H. W. Fancett, Superintendent of Philadelphia Petroleum Company, using them in every pumping well belonging to the Company; W. J. Rancie, Superintendent of lease 33, Bennehoff Run; J. P. Fowler, Superintendent of New York & Chicago Petroleum Company; C. L. I. Winant, Church Run; Wm. Spence, Bennehoff Run; Mr. J. Hoope, Superintendent of Bennehoff Run Petroleum Company; E. L. Pitcher, Superintendent of National Oil Company; C. H. Page, Superintendent Ocean Oil Company.

TESTIMONIALS.

WEST PITTOLE, Pa., Nov. 21, 1866.

WILLIAM B. SNOW, Esq.—Dear Sir: In answer to your request for my experience with your pump, I cheerfully state that I have used one of them for about two months and have found them entirely reliable, having performed all the requirements that was claimed for them.

The entire absence of leather packing and consequent lessening of friction in the working barrels makes the strain on the sucker rods much less, which is a great consideration in pumping deep wells, and I cheerfully recommend them to those having such.

Yours, respectfully, EDWIN L. PITCHER, Superintendent National Oil Company.

BENNEHOFF RUN, Nov. 21, 1866.

W. B. SNOW—Dear Sir: In reply to yours, asking for a "correct" statement as to the 100 of your pumps on this Farm, I cheerfully certify that on the 15th of August last I applied one of your pumps to well 20, belonging to the Bennehoff Run Petroleum Company, which had been pumping four weeks with a brass working barrel and "casing," about forty barrels a day. On the application of the "Snow Pump" the well increased to over one hundred barrels per day, and has been pumping at that rate ever since without ever having drawn the sucker rods to this date.

I also certify that I have three of your pumps in my own wells, viz: Nos. 51, "34" and 2, which have worked to my entire satisfaction, giving little or no trouble with drawing sucker rods. No. "34" is this morning producing at the rate of one hundred barrels per day.

Yours, very truly, WM. SPENCE.

TITUSVILLE, Dec. 29, 1866.

W. B. SNOW, Esq.—Dear Sir: I can cheerfully certify in favor of your very valuable Pump I bought of Bryan, Dillingham & Co., having previously tried all manner of patent valves, with no apparent success. I found that your pump has increased my well over one-half, and considering the low price of oil, without taking large production to pay expenses, I consider your pump invaluable. If another could not be procured I would not take $500 for it. R. W. HOLBROOK, Sup't. N. Y. &

BANKERS,

Government and other Desirable Securities,

NO. 5 NASSAU STREET, N. Y., recommend to investors the

FIRST MORTGAGE BONDS

OF THE

Central Pacific R. R. Co.

This Company is constructing under the patronage of the United States Government

the Western end of the Great National Railway across the Continent.

Their line will extend from Sacramento, California, across the Sierra Nevadas to the California State line, traversing the RICHEST AND MOST POPULOUS SECTION OF CALIFORNIA, and thence through the GREAT MINING REGIONS OF THE TERRITORIES, to the vicinity of Salt Lake City.

It forms the SOLE WESTERN LINK of the only route to the Pacific which is adopted by Congress and aided by the issue of UNITED STATES BONDS.

Their road is already completed, equipped and running for 94 miles from Sacramento to within 12 miles of the summit of the Sierras, and a large amount of the work of Grading, Tunnelling, &c., beyond that point has been accomplished.

The FIRST MORTGAGE BONDS of this Company afford unusual inducements of Safety and Profit to Investors, for the following among other reasons, viz.:

First. The rate of interest is SIX PER CENT. IN GOLD, payable semi-annually in the City of New York.

Second. The PRINCIPAL is payable in GOLD at maturity.

Third. The cost of the Bonds, NINETY-FIVE PER CENT. and accrued interest, is TEN PER CENT. less than that of the cheapest Six Per Cent. Gold Bearing Bonds of the Government.

Fourth. The UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT PROVIDES NEARLY HALF THE AMOUNT NECESSARY TO BUILD THE ENTIRE ROAD, AND LOOKS MAINLY TO A SMALL PERCENTAGE ON THE FUTURE TRAFFIC FOR REPAYMENT.

Fifth. Owing to this liberal provision, accompanied with EXTENSIVE GRANTS OF PUBLIC LANDS, by which the Government fosters this great national enterprise, ITS SUCCESS IS RENDERED CERTAIN, AND ITS FINANCIAL STABILITY IS ALTOGETHER INDEPENDENT OF THE CONTINGENCIES WHICH ATTEND ORDINARY RAILROAD ENTERPRISES.

Sixth. The Security of its FIRST MORTGAGE BONDS is therefore AMPLE, and their character for safety and reliability is equalled only by that of the obligations of the GOVERNMENT itself.

Seventh. The net earnings of the completed portion are ALREADY LARGELY IN EXCESS OF THE INTEREST OBLIGATIONS WHICH THE COMPANY WILL INCUR ON TWICE THE DISTANCE, and are steadily increasing, rendering the UNINTERRUPTED PAYMENT OF THE INTEREST ABSOLUTELY CERTAIN.

Eighth. At the present rate of Gold they pay nearly 8¾ Per Cent. per annum, on the amount invested. The Bonds are issued in denominations of $1,000 with semi-annually Gold Coupons attached, payable in New York, and are offered for the present at 95 per cent. and accrued interest (in currency) from January first.

Orders may be forwarded to us direct, or through the principal Banks and Bankers in all parts of the country. Remittances may be made in drafts on New York, or in Legal Tender Notes, National Bank Notes, or other funds current in this city, and the Bonds will be forwarded to any address by Express, free of charge. Inquiries for further particulars, by mail or otherwise, will receive punctual attendance.
